The leading business magazine in Utah named in its January 2008 issue that Glen Jensen is one of Utah's top 40 business leaders under the age of 40.

The recognition comes after Agel's record-breaking year in 2007 and honors Glen for his accomplishments in overseeing the quick growth.

"Glen has truly done remarkable things as CEO and founder that has really changed the way companies in our industry do business," said Craig Bradley, Agel president and co-founder. "His precise vision and ability to take a risk has really taken Agel to new heights and we are thankful Utah Business Magazine recognized Glen for the many accomplishments he has achieved before the age of forty."

In 2007, Jensen led Agel to record-setting profits—garnering the company numerous local and national business awards. The MountainWest Capital Network recently announced in its annual Utah's 100 Fastest Growing Companies that Agel Enterprises is one of the 2007 "Emerging Elite" companies—a designation for 12 young companies that show significant promise on the Utah economy.

"I am truly grateful to be named amongst the best leaders in the state," said Jensen. "This recognition is a great way to start off 2008 as Agel continues on its path towards greatness."
